B, our hearts to thee decreed. Lady! when to weeping households Word of thy devetion came, High and lowly called thee angel. Wives and mothers blessed thy name; Where the rectory roses cluster, Where the whitened cottage peers, In the old manorial mansion, Eyes were filled with thankful tears.

Lady! when the wounded soldier Lifts his head and looks on thee, Hope will come and softly whisper He may yet re-cross the sea; Yet return his mother's kisses, As she shudders at his scars, Yet behold a face still dearer

Seen in dreams beneath the stars. Lady! thou has left for duty, All that gives to life its charm. And we pray that God may keep thee With thy sisters safe from harm. Ever shall thy name and story Cause the heart a blissful thrill, When our warfare long is over, And we all are lying still.—[London News.

SULT —About a year since, says the New York Express, it will be remembered, the cir-Gauntlets or Mits for cold weather. Trade cumstances relative to a suit brought againt served at New York prices. Wm K. Hall, at that time SuperIntendent of the Harlem Railroad, for a breach of promise of marriage, by a young lady from Washington, were published; and it was subsequently stated that she had obtained a verdict of $13,-000 damages against him. Since that time he has applied for the benefit of the insolvent act, submitted to imprisonment in the Hudson county jail, and recently obtained a discharge from his debts,-by means of which he escapes the penalty and leaves the young lady to take eare of herself.
